* The Red Guards*

This is one of the quotes that Chairman Mao Tse Tung said in December 1936, and I quote, "War is the highest form of struggle for resolving contradictions, when they have developed a certain stage, between classes, nations, states, or political groups, and it has existed ever since the emergence of private property, and of classes" end quote. I think this means that people should not fight to solve debates, that there should be no War between classes, nations, states, or political groups, it's not the way to solve conflicts.

In 1966, Chairman Mao closed all schools, and the following months he encouraged the Red Guards to attack all the

The dazi bao is a form of showing other people what there family is really like, and so Ji-Li Jiang got one of them, and only her best friend stuck by her, and then they went off to high school, and they took different classes, and didn't spend as much time together.
